Leadership isn't about power. It's about responsibility.

WHY IT MATTERS

Chase power, and you become the bottleneck.

Take responsibility, and you become a multiplier.

THE LESSON I KEEP USING

There's no single "right" way to lead.

The best leaders read the moment — then adapt.

Context is king. The style that shines in a crisis can exhaust a steady team.

Stop asking "how do I get more influence?"

Start asking "how do I take more responsibility?"

The influence turns out to be a by-product.
