MODULE 5 OF 8

LEADERSHIP STARTS WITH AWARENESS.

The most important leadership lesson from Module 5.

> You can't lead others well if you're not aware of yourself.

The insight that changed how I think about leadership.

DENIZ CALISKAN

SELF-AWARENESS

LEAD YOURSELF FIRST.

You can't lead others well if you're not aware of yourself — and the same honesty is what lets you see a team clearly.

DENIZ CALISKAN

MODULE 5 OF 8 | OXFORD EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP

THE BRAVEST SENTENCE

"WE DON'T NEED A TEAM FOR THIS."

Sometimes that's the bravest thing a leader can say.

DENIZ CALISKAN

MODULE 5 OF 8 | OXFORD EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP

WHY WE DEFAULT

TEAMS AREN'T ALWAYS THE ANSWER.

We default to them for everything — including work one person would do faster alone.

PROCESS OVER INPUTS

IT'S NEVER THE INPUTS.

Talented people in a bad process lose to a modest team that works well together.

DENIZ CALISKAN

MODULE 5 OF 8 | OXFORD EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP

MODULE 5 · THE TAKEAWAY

DIVERSITY IS THE POTENTIAL.

Inclusion is what unlocks it.